

SIX MEN
THREE GUITARS
STONER-ROCK 'N' ROLL

Far out in the depth of the universe there's a small black and white planet. In the centre of this little world, six renowned space pilots are working on the interplanetary rock'n'roll resistance.

Mission: to contaminate all solar systems and planetoids with the pimped three kelvin flash future sound.

Radiation: rich riffs in lo-mid-uptempo, barking psychedelic lyrics, unison tunes and walls of sound.

Roots: Stoner, Punk, Alternative, Garage, Psychedelic and BluesRock since 2005.

Influences: Kyuss, Sonic Youth, Turbonegro, Queens of the Stone Age, Motorpsycho

The basic modules of all matter are dancing to the beat of their two EPs and their debut album ROCK ROCK, enjoyed by listeners of various rock genres.

The Aachen-based double trio and its irradiated sound have support-gig-docked onto Brant Björk and the Bros., Therapy?, Bollock Brothers and the Dimple Minds – more to come...

Whoever has looked those fearless captains in their dilated eyes at a live performance, will want to join their spaceship convoy of followers to collectively guard the cosmos against the dark matter.
